

Virtuous Students of the Month – April 2019

Grade PreK3

This PreK3 student is being recognized for the virtue of trustworthiness. They are someone who teachers and students can always count on to follow directions and problem solve in a pinch. They are often one of the first friends to help someone in need and if something goes awry during the day they know what the responsible and safe choice is and often opts for that.

The PreK3 Virtuous Student of the Month is.... Sara Griffin!

Grade PreK4

This PreK4 student is being recognized for the virtue of trustworthiness. They exhibit trustworthiness in their actions every day. Their teachers and peers know they can count on them to be honest and show what a true friend really is.

The PreK4 Virtuous Student of the Month is... Lance Borgerson!

Grade K

This Kindergartner is being recognized for always being kind, friendly and respectful to all of their peers and teachers. They have a pleasant disposition and consideration for others. They are always willing to share a kind word and smile with a friend.

The Virtuous Student of the Month in Kindergarten is.... Grace Kenyon!

Grade 1

This student has a very kind and caring personality. He has many close friendships with both boys and girls of all ages within the school. This is because he accepts people for EXACTLY who they are. He knows in his heart that everyone makes mistakes, because he makes them too. He treats others the way he wants to be treated so he is quick to forgive and forget and carry on with a friendship. He once received an apology note from a student who hurt him and he wrote a forgiveness note back to the student with the words "It's ok I forgive you." He is a great role model of forgiveness for others.

The 1st grade Virtuous Student of the Month is.... Logan Palmieri !

Grade 2

This 2nd grader always displays the virtue of trustworthiness by courageously telling the truth and doing what is right even when no one else is looking. With their friends, they keep their word and follows through on their commitments. They are a reliable source when searching for a truthful answer.

The 2nd grade Virtuous Student of the Month is.... Emma Homsey!

Grade 3

This 3rd grader exhibits the virtue of kindness.

They always show kindness to their classmates by offering her help. This student always has a positive attitude and is respectful to everyone they meet.

The 3rd grade Virtuous Student of the Month is.... Ava Annino!

Grade 4

This 4th grader is being recognized for the virtue of trustworthiness.

They are a person you can truly count on to be honest, to try their hardest, to do what you ask of them, and to follow through on promises and commitments. You can rely on them for important tasks. You count on them to do the right thing - even when no one is watching. This 4th grader is truthful and will always give you straight answers when questioned - no matter what - even if it means they could be in trouble. They are true to their friends. They stand by them, defend them if needed, and never betrays their trust in them.

The 4th grade Virtuous Student of the Month is.... Allegra Jenkins!

Grade 5

This 5th grader regularly exhibits Joyfulness and their joyfulness is contagious. From the beginning of the day when they beam their sparkly-eyed smile through the classroom window and enter with a happy “Good Morning”, to the end of the day when they wish us all a good afternoon and exits the room with a kind wave and giant smile, they are a wellspring of Joy. They encourage friends, laughs heartily with them, and even smiles when others poke good-natured criticism their way. This 5th grader takes all things in stride, maintains a positive attitude, and is a model of perpetual joy through all things for all of us!

The 5th grade Virtuous Student of the Month is.... Anya Kozak-McEnaney!

Jr. High-6th and 7th grade

Both a 6th and 7th grader are being recognized for the virtue of trustworthiness. These two students are consistently “go-to” students during activities that require the modeling of appropriate behavior and safety procedures. Both show genuine care and concern for the success of their peers during group work and will often spend significant time ensuring their group members feel comfortable or understand the activity. They can always be trusted with a leadership role, as when given the opportunity they lead with a steady, gentle hand.

The 6th and 7th grade Virtuous Students of the Month are....

Olivia Levitsky (6th Grade) and Zoe O’Kane (7th grade)!

Jr. High-8th grade

This student is being recognized for the virtue of trustworthiness. They own up to their mistakes and tries their best to correct them, is admirably responsible about completing assignments when they have missed school, and when called upon to do their best even in the absence of a teacher, they do it.

The 8th grade Virtuous Students of the Month is.... Tyler Curtis