Sacred Heart School (SHS) will not release a camper to any person other than the camp member's parent or legal guardian without written permission from the parent or guardian. SHS presumes that each parent or guardian may legally pick up their camp member unless the custodial parent notifies the camp and sends a supporting court order. When notified, SHS shall not permit a parent or guardian to pick up a child against whom there is a court-ordered restraining order or comparable court ruling. The burden of notification is on the legal parent or guardian.

Below is a list of those who have permission to pick a camper up or to be called in an emergency if parent/guardian cannot be reached.
